Susan 01704 897857 or susanroberts2805@aol.com

Well 'all the leaves are brown' and fortunately (or unfortunately?!) the steep descent towards Christmas has begun-if you are anything like me it is good to look forward to some cheer, celebration and good news after the difficult times we have been going through.

However, there is lots to occupy us before then of course, bonfires and fireworks and the more thoughtful reflection and gratitude of Remembrance Sunday on 14th November. As was tradition before the interruption of Covid last year, the church service will begin at 10.30am and we will gather at the monument for 10.50am for the act of Remembrance.

Just before then on Sunday 7th November at the more usual time of 9.30am Ms Hampson from the school will be starting a regular (monthly) 'messy church' for young people, in addition to the 'hey-ho' group for families that meets on the 1st and 3rd Sundays of the month at church. These groups have been very well received, do come along if you would like and you'll be made very welcome.

Having mentioned Christmas full details will follow in next month's magazine but some highlights to look out for are the Christmas Fayre at the school on Friday 26th November (3.30-6pm), the famous 'carols by the Christmas tree' at the church gates on Sun 19th Dec (4pm), and of course the Christingle and late-night services on Christmas Eve.

Sorry for all the dates and arrangements-on the other hand it is nice to feel busy again and that events can happen as long as we are respectful and careful. I hope that this message finds you well, and look forward to meeting you perhaps at one of these events in the next few months.

With very best wishes
Ian Hopkins
(Interim Vicar)

Lancashire Best Kept Village Competition

Very pleased to announce that Halsall Village won the Large Village Class in the Lancashire Best Kept Village Competition.

There were 14 entries in this class including Pilling (who came 2nd) Hesketh Bank, Longton and Hambleton. The plaque will be displayed on the Memorial Hall wall at the Playing Fields. There was also success for the school which came runner up in their category out of 24 entries. The Saracens Head got a Highly Commended Certificate in their group of 26 entries. Bishops Walk Wildlife area got a Highly Commended Certificate in the public "garden" class out of 16 entries and the cricket ground which was entered for the first time this year came a very respectable 4th out of 7 entries in their category.

ALL of these excellent results contributed to our winning the whole Village award. It goes to show there are LOTS of different people out there doing their bit around and about to make our village worthy winners. Thank you to one and all!!

For the next four years will need to up our game even more as we will be entered in the prestigious Champions class and will be up against the likes of Blacko, Grindleton, Mawdesley, Croston, Bretherton & Elswick. So hope these villages will be ready for stiff competition from us Halsall folk who aim to give them a run for their money!! Bring it on!!

Next month we will publish the reports from the two lots of judges who came to visit us during the summer and awarded us marks. It should make interesting reading as they tell us what's good and what needs improving in the village.

Halsall St Cuthbert's : November Report

Bonfire Night

The school's PTFA, with the help of a range of community groups, will be organizing the Bonfire and Firework Night on Friday 5th November. It'll be a great opportunity to raise funds for local good causes and we hope that the weather will be cold, crisp and dry.

Many people will be working extremely hard to make the event as successful as possible and they deserve our thanks. Their commitment is well appreciated.

Sports Competitions

It has been a fabulous start to the year with many renewed opportunities for inter-school sport. This is a massively important part of the school experience, the chance to visit other schools and compete in different sports. These are special times that stay in the memory for a long, long time.

Both our football team and our netball team did brilliantly in recent tournaments

The football team competed in the small school league and finished as runner-up.

The netball team is presently in 2nd place in its league with 5 games to play.

Harvest Service

The harvest service at St Cuthbert's Church was a big success. Many thanks to everyone who came along to watch. It was such a lovely occasion and the children were brilliant with their singing and dancing. It was so nice to see the church packed to the rafters and the children performing with such joy and enthusiasm, thanking God for the harvest and encouraging people to share. Many thanks to the staff who helped the children practice and to those who came along on the Sunday morning to support. And thanks to everyone who helped decorate the church so beautifully. It must have taken such a long time but it was well worth it. It lifted everyone's spirits and was much appreciated.

Spooky Disco

The children had a spooky disco on the last day of the half-term. Lots of children came along dressed up in their spooky attire and joined in with the singing and dancing and games in the hall. The PTFA had decorated the entrance area amazingly well and sold glowies and refreshments, etc. The children loved it. Thanks to all the volunteers who came along to help out.

Lancashire's Best Kept Village 2021

Halsall gained 2nd place in the Schools and Nurseries category. With over 30 schools competing, this is certainly an outstanding achievement. A big thanks to Simon Bounds our groundsman and to Mr Graham Preston our site supervisor, for all their hard work in helping maintain the school grounds.

Christmas Shows 2021

We are hoping to resume our Christmas Concert this year and raise funds for our nominated charities.

Performances will be on :

Tues 7th Dec 10-00am

Wed 8th Dec 2-00pm

Thur 9th Dec 7-00pm

Fri 10th Dec Rec Nativity 9-30am (All tickets are priced at £4)

Members of the community are very welcome to come along to the Tuesday morning performance. Please ring school if you are interested in attending.

Thanks.

Edward Culshaw

Kings Liverpool Regiment 12th Battalion 19350

Killed in action on the 4th September 1916, that bloodiest of years, that had seen the massacre at the Somme.

I am very grateful to Mrs Susan Roberts for the privilege of permitting me to see Edward Culshaw's war records and the war diaries pertaining to the advance towards Guillemont, which was part of the offensive known as the Battle of the Somme. Edward Culshaw was her great uncle and a brave soldier. I had never read any war diaries before and they certainly had an impact on me because the day to day horror of the battlefield is revealed. Not least the apprehension and frightening uncertainty. They describe in detail the movements of troops forwards and back, facing heavy bombardment in a landscape of craters and bunkers. Tactics day by day are revealed, some successful, some catastrophic and within them the death of this young soldier killed by a shell that also killed another Halsall lad, Lance Corporal Robert Gibbons.

Edward, a signalman at Fazakerley Station also worked at Plex Moss Station. He was unmarried and both his parents James Culshaw and Ann née Cave of Plex Lane were deceased. His next of kin was his elder brother John.

He had enlisted without question in Southport on the 7th September 1914 and was told that his service would last 3 years but he would be retained if the war went any longer. He agreed selflessly to all this, even that he might be kept to help out in a military hospital should the war end, until his service was no longer required. All this he did for King George Vth and country, signed and attested by his own signature. He was of average height 1 metre 67 cm (5'6") weighing 63 kilos (10 stone).

He began his training in Aldershot and it was not long before a spell on Salisbury plain had equipped him for transfer to France. Assigned to the 12th Battalion of the King's Liverpool Regiment, he arrived at the end of July 1915 travelling to Armentières on the 2nd of August. The 12th were a troop of 30 officers and nearly 1000 in the ranks and they were soon involved in a subsidiary operation at the Battle of Loos. This took place from the 5th to the 12th September and casualties were light. The second tour from the 25th September demonstrated that the men were not quite practised in moving safely around trenches and many were picked off by German snipers, they also came under heavy shelling. From October to the end of the year they were billeted at Laventie and saw relatively little action while holding the trenches.

On March the 12th the next year they were moved close to the fierce fighting at Ypres and they held their position until April before being relieved. They learnt a major attack on Guillemont would take place at the end of Summer.

Guillemont was a thorn in the side of the British command. It had cost many British lives and seemed impossible to take. Midday on September the 3rd was zero hour for the battalions assembled for the push and that included Edward Culshaw and the 12th King's Liverpool Regiment

All throughout the previous day they shelled enemy lines in Guillemont. In the town hardly a stone upon stone was left standing. August that year 1916 had been hot with temperatures generally in the high 70's Fahrenheit (25 degrees Celsius). Dawn broke on the 4th September and was accompanied by wind and showers the temperature fell by several degrees and rain threatened. This was a welcome relief for soldiers transporting heavy equipment in full battle gear, but the rain of German machine gun fire was ever present. The 5th Division prepared to attack the German second position from Point 48 to Wedge Wood and Valley Trench to the north. Two battalions from the 16th (Irish) Division were attached to the 5th Division and one to the 20th Division. The 12th King's division were brought up to support the Irish Leinsters, they were heavily attacked by artillery fire on the left flank where the bombers (soldiers trained in launching grenades) suffered many casualties, one of whom was Edward Culshaw. The offensive led to the British and Irish forces taking Guillemont where they exposed a labyrinth of fortified underground trenches revealing the extent of the German's resistance.

Edward is buried where he fell and his name is recorded on the great monument at Thiepval in Northern France. He was awarded the World War 1 Service Medal, the 1914-15 Star Medal and the Victory medal posthumously. Edward's brother John Culshaw received the medals on Edward's behalf. The whereabouts of these medals are uncertain but it is hoped that they are held by another branch of the family.

Seven of his brothers and sisters mourned his passing including Alice with whom he lived and Catherine who was Susan's great grandmother.

On the 100th anniversary of Edward's death Susan, with three other family members visited Thiepval, Guillemont and Ypres to honour his memory and sacrifice.

I run a jigsaw club from my home in Scarisbrick. I have over 200 jigsaws available to lend out which has proved very popular during lockdown. I read that the virus can stay on cardboard for 24 hours so all jigsaws are quarantined for 72 hours before being lent out. Being close to the Morris Dancers, I am well positioned for people to swap jigsaws on their journey to/from hospitals/shops.

Its free to join and free to borrow. We just ask for a donation of a jigsaw then you can borrow and return as many jigsaws as often as you like. I have done over 60 jigsaws since lockdown began so it has saved many of us a lot of money. I have attached the link below.

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/1526267210867010>

If anyone has any jigsaws they could donate,
I will happily collect. Thank you.

Gardener`s Corner

November at-a-glance

Once the autumn leaves have fallen, evergreen shrubs really come into their own. They give the garden year-round backbone and some are very striking, in shades of gold, reds, bronze or blues, as well as plain green or various variegated patterns, late berries, craggy tree trunks and coloured stems of trees and shrubs – who said winter was dull. Happy gardening.

General garden tasks

Carry out winter digging or forking over.

Check over the garden for anything that's likely to be at risk from frost

Continue cutting the grass if conditions allow, but raise the blades,.

Collect up dead leaves from the lawn & make leaf mould & potting compost

Lay turf if you didn't last month

Plant & move bare-root trees & shrubs

Stake well any newly planted trees

Sow seeds of hardy shrubs & trees

Plant tulips this month

Dig up dahlia tubers once the plants start to die off after the first frosts

Protect container plants from the cold, wet & windy weather

Continue harvesting leeks & Brussels sprouts.

Plant fruit trees

Ventilate the greenhouse on warm days but reduce watering

Check stored fruit & vegetables

Grow windowsill & salad herbs

Do your autumn pond clear-out if you didn't get round to it last month

Clean pool filters & check cables for pumps & lights

Watch out for

Snails in crevices around the garden

Mice in sheds & greenhouses especially where there is stored fruit

Pigeons pinching your winter greens

Squirrels digging up your bulbs

Windy weather disturbing tree stakes chaffing the bark.

Get ahead

Think about any garden designing & alterations you'd like to do over the winter months

Give the lawn mower a maintenance check now or over the winter

Start winter pruning

Mulch fruit trees

Plants in their prime

Viburnum. Ornamental cabbages. Winter flowering pansies. Potted topiary.

Gaultheria. Skimmia. Clematis `freckles`. Mahonia. Euonymus. Pyracantha.

Winter jasmine.
