The Rector Writes

In the February edition of the Halsall News, it was interesting to read letters from my predecessors about keeping Lent in 1965. I loved the call from Canon Bullough to “make a good start with celebrations of Holy Communion at 7am or 10am.” I am not sure how well received a 7am church service would be today!

Whilst the times of the church services for Ash Wednesday have changed (11am at St Thomas', 7pm at St Cuthbert's - with services in school for St Thomas' and St Cuthbert's school communities too) the focus on prayer and coming together for worship in church has not changed at all.

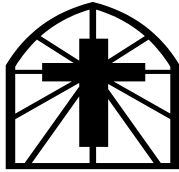

I recognise this is a difficult request in light of recent events within the Diocese of Liverpool. Like many of you, I was shocked and saddened by the allegations broadcast by Channel Four News at the end of January. There are many unanswered questions as well as feelings of anger and sadness. I want to assure you that St Cuthbert's is committed to upholding the dignity of all people, but to acknowledge we are also flawed human beings who are held together in the love of God.

The Church asks us to observe the 40 days of Lent as a way of preparing for Easter. This year, in our Diocese as well as St Cuthbert's, it is a time for honesty, humility, repentance, unity, hope and blessing. This year in particular, Lent is more than denying ourselves a luxury or two - it is about asking important questions:

- How do we listen well to each other and celebrate our differences?
- How do we break down the barriers that stop people encountering God's love?
- What does it mean to love God and our neighbour as ourselves, and how do we live this out with all our being?

Please do join us for our Lent course exploring how we find hope and reconciliation in our broken and hurting world, or come and immerse yourself in the majesty and holiness of worship.

Every blessing, Susan

The Disability Project Parish Grant Scheme

St Cuthbert's PCC are delighted to announce that we have been awarded a significant grant from The Archbishops' Council of the Church of England to create ramped access from the lychgate into the graveyard and church building. I would like to thank the hard work of the standing, committee at St Cuthbert's, and the Diocese for their support in helping us write the successful bid.

The grant will cover three quarters of the projected costs, which means we can now start getting all the legal permissions we need to alter the grounds of a grade one, historic building.

We hope that the community will help and support us to complete this essential but major piece of work over the next two years. At Easter we will be launching a fundraising campaign to cover the shortfall, and we hope to show you the plans at the open church event in May.

Prayer and worship is at the heart of all we do.

It is only with the generosity of our community that we can sustain our wonderful church and keep our clergy.

St Cuthbert's is responsible for funding everything we do as a church. Despite what some people think none of our activities are directly funded by the Diocese or the National Church.

You can use the Parish Giving Scheme to make one off donations by scanning this QR code.

FRIENDS OF ST CUTHBERT'S

You can also support St Cuthbert's by becoming "a friend".

All the funds raised through this scheme are directed to the maintenance and repair of the church building and grounds.

There is a minimum donation of £20 per year to join, but you can then choose how much and how regularly you donate.

EASTER

"Easter" is the English name for this great Christian festival. The original name was Pascha, and the name used still in France, for example, is "Pâques." The Anglo-Saxon historian, the Venerable Bede, tells how the name Easter came to be used by the early English, as follows:—

"Eostur month . . . had formerly its name from a goddess of theirs who was called Eostre, whose festivals they used to celebrate in it, and from whose name they now designate the Paschal season, giving to the rejoicings of the new festival the accustomed name of the old observance." It may seem strange that the name of a pagan goddess should have been given to a Christian festival, but this has happened more than once. "Yule" was a pagan mid-winter feast, and it became transferred to the Christian feast of the Nativity—Christmas.

To me, the origin of the name Easter has a wonderful significance. The pagan festival of Eostre was a Spring festival. These pagan deities were closely associated with the seasons, and with the growth of flowers, and fruits of the earth. This would be a festival of rejoicing for the new-life and promise of Spring. After the winter the trees were budding, green blades of the crops appearing, violets and primroses, daffodils and crocuses flowering in field and hedgerow. The songs of blackbirds and thrush cheering the early morning. Men rejoiced with Nature, and worshipped the god whose influence they believed was responsible for all this. There was a core of truth behind this pagan festival which found its transfiguration and fulfilment in Christ's Resurrection to renewed life.

The Resurrection speaks to us of all that Spring means, and, of course, far more. It speaks to us of Spring as something true of our own nature. The Winter of death is not the end, there follows the Spring with renewed life, fragrant, joyous, youthful.

In Easter we have the most joyful of all Christian festivals, and we English are fortunate in the name the festival bears, and its consequent inseparable relationship in our minds with the season of Spring.

SOME THOUGHTS FOR PASSION SUNDAY

"Our deepest need is one which we can never supply . . . it is that we should be lifted off that centre of self about which from our birth we tend to revolve, and set moving in a new orbit with God as centre." (Temple).

Self-centred as we are we cannot reorganise ourselves about some other centre. The rich young ruler came to Christ asking: "What good thing shall

I do to inherit eternal life?" The answer was: "Sell all that thou hast, and take up thy cross and follow me." He turned away sorrowfully, for he had great possessions. Here it was wealth, but it might have been almost anything else—pleasures, career, fame. Most of us are infected by this cancer of self-centredness. There are people, like Gabriel Oak in Hardy's "Far from the Madding Crowd," about whom Bathsheba could say that she "—had not yet learnt the simple lesson which Oak showed a mastery of by every turn and look he gave—that among the multitude of interests by which he was surrounded, those which affected his personal well-being were not the most absorbing and important in his own eyes. Oak meditatively looked upon the horizon of circumstances without any special regard to his own standpoint in the midst."

Such selflessness is all too rare!

Nowhere are the contrasts between the two orbits, the self-centred one, and the God-centred one so sharply drawn as in the story of the Passion of Christ. Christ stands out as absolutely God-centred, while in the other characters we find many gradations of self-centredness. The tragedy is due entirely to man's self-centredness.

The facts have peculiar features that we do well to note. Caiaphas, the Pharisees and Sadducees—his enemies—were not the notorious sinners upon whom society looks down, but people who were looked up to as highly respectable citizens, and members of the synagogue. Even people of ill-repute had no quarrel with him, and it was the sneer of his enemies that he was "a friend of publicans and sinners."

Indeed they were not the well known sins which shock respectable people which sent Christ to the Cross, but the respectable sins which are in the hearts of all of us. "Not the flesh, but the world, got rid of its King" Worldliness is always the effective enemy of Christ. The desires of the flesh are known and recognisable, but our deepest sin is always something of which we are unconscious, or even of which we may be proud.

They crucified Christ, and saw no harm in it. Self-centred, self opinionated, themselves and their interests determined their course. The very qualities they claimed as virtues were sinful, when they could thank God that they were not as other men are.

There is nothing so blinding as self-centredness, nor so fatal in its consequences.

Celebrating Children's Writing

A change to our usual school report this month as I'd like to celebrate the wonderful writing produced by our Year 3 pupils.

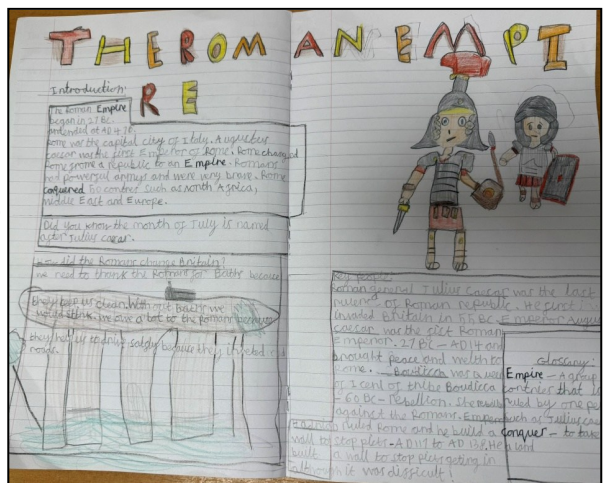

I had the privilege and the pleasure of observing one of their History lessons the other week and I was really by the children's knowledge of the Roman Invasion of Britain.

Report by Nancy Heyes

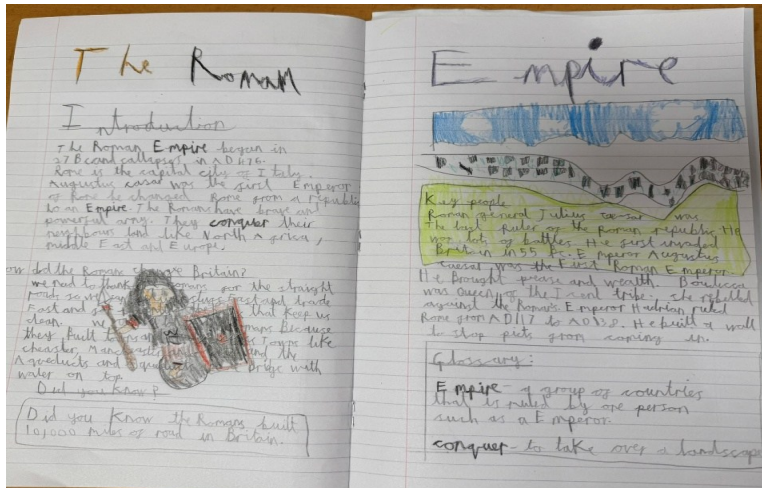

Report by Hugo Singleton

After weeks of exploring the topic of the Romans in their History lessons, the children were given the opportunity to apply this knowledge whilst writing non-fiction reports in English.

Wherever possible, we like our children to write for a purpose (and for an audience) so they were set the challenge of producing a report for inclusion in the next publication of Halsall News.

Report by Evana Tenser-Hart

Report by Florence Holmes

We hope you have enjoyed reading these reports. We aim to upload more examples of our children's work on to our website over the coming months.

Please visit the History page in the curriculum section of our website to find out a little more.

Halsall Village Proud & Tidy Group

Our Bishops Walk planting project has made a good start with work beginning on the slope. Sacks and sacks of nettle roots have been dug out on the middle section of the planting plan. The longest root we've dug out so far was 2 metres (well done Conor!) but there is plenty of opportunity for you to beat that record!

A lot of extra work has been made by the winter storms and we need lots of help mending the boundary fences and building up the dead hedges. It's a very satisfying job and not too strenuous for those who don't like digging. Our planned dates for working parties in March are -

Saturday 1st	March 10am to 12 noon
Thursday 13th	March 1pm to 3pm
Saturday 29th	March 10am to 12 noon

In addition if there are any spells of nice weather we may have some extra dates at short notice which we will let people know by email. If you would like to come along and join us please let us have your email address to add to our list of jolly volunteers who help as and when they can.

It's also time to start thinking about our entry in the 2025 Lancashire Best Kept Village Competition. We are now back in the Large Village Class having been in the Champions class for the past 4 years. Further details in the April newsletter.

The Bees and Butterflies Brigade – March 2025

With spring in the air I hope you are feeling ready to get outside, clear your head and start connecting with nature! I love this time of year, when it can be chilly but sunny; when the first flowers are bursting forth and the birdsong is joyful.

The Bs have a couple of meetings planned for March, since it's such a good month for planting. The first is in collaboration with The Canal and River Trust. I've been hatching a plan with them to repair the hedgerows and plant some wildflowers between Bridge 25 (The Saracens Head) and Bridge 24 (Hill Bridge), thus creating an improved "wildlife corridor" between Halsall Cutting and the village. It's a long-term plan and it may take a few years to complete, but if we do a section at a time we'll get there in the end.

What do I mean when I use the term "wildlife corridor"? A wildlife corridor is an area of land that connects fragments of good habitat, allowing wildlife to move between these spaces. Because of these connections, fragments can function more like a larger habitat area; more food and shelter is available across this larger area, and so more wildlife can be supported. The Canal and River Trust recognizes that canals act as valuable wildlife corridors and they are keen to work with us to improve our local stretch.

So, to make hedge planting a bit easier for us, volunteers from The Trust have been clearing and preparing a 25m section of canal-side near Hill Bridge. The deal is that The Trust provide the hedging whips (small hedging plants) and The Bees and Butterflies Brigade complete the planting. Planting the whips will actually be quite easy and very satisfying! We'll be meeting at The Saracens Head on Saturday 15th March at 10am – please do come along if you'd like to get involved.

Our second March meeting is on Sunday 23rd at 2pm in St. Cuthbert's Memorial Garden. We'll be planting beautiful, shade-tolerant shrubs that bear flowers (for pollinating insects) and berries (for birds and small mammals). Some of the shrubs will also provide good nest sites for popular birds such as robin and blackbird, which we really want to protect and encourage in the village.

If you'd like to join The Bs or you'd like some help to make your garden more wildlife-friendly, do get in touch on the email below – I'd love to hear from you.
